“The most beautiful things are not associated with money; they are memories and moments. If you don't celebrate those, they can pass you by.”
- Alek Wek

Dear Parents and Well Wishers,
Greetings!

The season of festivals continue to rule the month of November. It's the festival of lights and a season of indulgence; be it food, colours or gifts. It is a traditional time to redecorate homes, buy and present gifts to near and dear ones, and treat oneself to a selection of sweets made in desi ghee!

As we clean and ready our houses; let us also unfetter our minds and bring order in our lives.

As we celebrate relationships; let us strengthen our bonds by forgiving each other and celebrate the goodness in each.

As we adorn our houses with fresh flowers; let us infuse our lives with freshness of thoughts.

As we buy gifts for each other; let us show our gratitude to Mother Earth by taking a Pledge to protect it from pollution and help restore its wealth.

As we light the earthen lamps in our houses at dusk; let the inner light in each one of us help to overcome our fears and our vices; let it lead us to move ahead with confidence and determination.

HAPPY DIWALI! BE SAFE & GO GREEN!!!!
